I hereby express my great interest in continued service in Journal of Bioterrorism & Biodefense as an Editor. I further give my consent to disclose by the Journal my affiliation and contact information. My professional awards and contributions include: Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society, Fellow of the American Statistical Society, Elected Member of the International Statistical Institute, and Chair Elect to the Statistics in Defense and National Security Section of the American Statistical Association. I do not have any conflict of interest, which would interfere with this important service for science, medicine, and technology communities.

I strongly recommend this journal to be indexed in PubMed Central. Journal staff and editorial board members have worked very hard for the journal to establish its professional standing.
