

Award Content for COPD 2020

Robert Buckingham

President of ojai community hospital, California

Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, commonly referred to as COPD, is a group of progressive lung diseases. The most common are emphysema and chronic bronchitis. Many people with COPD have both of these conditions. Emphysema slowly destroys air sacs in your lungs, which interferes with outward air flow. Bronchitis causes inflammation and narrowing of the bronchial tubes, which allows mucus to build up.

Expert Level: The award is to the experts who have made outstanding contributions to advancing in Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Diseases. It is the conference's most prestigious award and tagged as the Scientific Service Achievement award. The eligibility criteria for achieving this award is that one should have a minimum of 20+ years of experience in the relative field in the public or private sector. The receiver of this award should have a dedicated fascination and should take initiative in researching the recent trends and developments towards the related subjects. You can nominate deserving of the award online.

Professional Level: The award for professional or academic research activity acquired in the Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Diseases research field in the public or private sector for experts having research knowledge of 10+ years in the field of Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Diseases with most relevant accomplishments. Part-time research experience would be counted as pro-rata. It is calculated from the date when you obtained the (first) degree entitling you to embark on a doctorate (either in the country in which the degree has been earned or in the country where the researcher is recruited), even if the doctorate has never been completed or expected. You can nominate deserving of the award online.

Scholar Level: Our conference aims to provide the best platform for extending your network by sharing your on-stage research knowledge. Presentation involves 25-30 minutes of oral debate on the conference theme-based scientific research topics along with 5-minute panel discussions. You can nominate deserving of the award online.

Women Scientist: Our conference provides a unique platform for women scientists for presenting the latest research projects with an in-depth analysis. We cordially invite women scholars and scientists from universities/industries having 10+ years of research experience to join the forum. We are happy to encourage our women scientist participants through research awards and provide assistance for women scholars in career development and research guidance through our collaborations. Women scientists may nominate deserving of the award online.

Outstanding Speaker: Outstanding Speaker awards are presented to recognize individuals who have made implemented an idea or innovative approach to encourage active involvement for the betterment of the field. The award should motivate individuals to strive to realize their fullest potential which could, in turn, be beneficial. Epic works are not only a testament to the individual's efforts, but they also have the potential to change the world as they can lead to the formulation of better policies and or a new mindset.

Best Keynote Speaker: Keynote speeches are usually based on the speaker's perspective of future advancements and experiences. They can also include motivational and inspirational elements. But the most important factor for keynote message success is audience engagement, innovative ideas for the betterment of health conditions in society, someone who captures the essence of your meeting and can subsequently highlight it to your audience in a short amount of time, weaving the key message that you want the audience to take away with them, into their speech in a fun and memorable way.

Best Poster Presentation: Poster presentations are a very important way of sharing significant research and deserve recognition. The poster gives a framework to visually summarize your work, to engage others in discussions, and an opening to entice others to learn more by reading the full paper. The student poster award will acknowledge work that best represents the purposes, goals, vision and adds new knowledge, contributes innovative research, and provides an insightful contribution to the field by a bachelor, master or doctoral student.

Outstanding Thesis: The award is recognizing for Masters/Ph.D./Post Doctorate thesis work presentations who will exhibit their projects and thesis that have been implemented to improve long-term excellence in the field of Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Diseases. You can nominate deserving of the award online.
