Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning. Journal of Clinical and Experimental Transplantation (ISSN: 2475-7640) is growing continuously. It is our pleasure to announce that during year 2019, all issues of volume 4 were published online on time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of CAS Source Index (CASSI), Index Copernicus, Google Scholar, Sherpa Romeo, Access to Global Online Research in Agriculture (AGORA), RefSeek, Directory of Research Journal Indexing (DRJI), Hamdard University, EBSCO A-Z, OCLC-WorldCat, SWB online catalog, Publons, authors having NIH grant were submitted to PubMed.

During the calendar year 2019, JCET received a total of 4 papers, During 2019 around 4 were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 2 issues of Volume 4 published during the year 2019, a total of 4 articles were published (at an average of 2 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Average publication lag time of an article was further reduced to 2-3 weeks.

Journal of Clinical and Experimental Transplantation also announces its new association with OMICS Publishing group for Archiving, Journal maintenance, financial purpose and support. Journal will be running its website <https://www.omicsonline.org/clinical-experimental-transplantation.php> parallel for Editorial and review work process so as to maintain its highest standard of scientific work.

Association with Omics Publishing Group has increased Readership Metrics (By Google Analytics) of Journal of Clinical and Experimental Transplantation which can be accessed at Google Analytics Metrics for the Journal of Clinical and Experimental Transplantation.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Editor-in-Chief: Hans W. Sollinger (USA) Associate Editors: Jeffrey Burke Halldorson (USA), during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistants in bringing out issues of JCET in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of JCET, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of JCET and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 5 of JCET in scheduled time.
