

Exploring the diverse aspects of Spine and Spinal Disorders

Lev Kalika

New York Dynamic Neuromuscular Rehabilitation & Physical Therapy Clinic, USA

3rd International Conference on Spine and Spinal Disorders was successfully executed on November 26 & 27, 2018 at Dubai, UAE. The global crowd who showed their gracious presence at Spine 2018 belonging to the diverse field of Spine and Spinal Disorders contributed to make it successful.

The event was organized at Marriott Executive Apartments Al Jaddaf (MERLETTO), Oud Metha Rd - Dubai - United Arab Emirates and was accompanied by International conference on Addiction research and therapy at the same hotel over same dates. Continuing with Overwhelmed responses, active participation were received from all of the Editorial Board Members of supporting International Journals and also from the leading academic scientists, researchers, research scholars, students and leaders from the fields of Neurology and Neuroscience who made this event successful. Following with the conference had been marked by the presence, elegance of various young business delegates and brilliant researchers also with talented student communities representing quite 18 countries, who have forthwith this event into the path of success. The conference highlighted various sessions on current retroviral research.

The attendees had a great time to interact and utilise the opportunity to network to the people from all around the world from the diverse field of Spine Research, orthopaedics and Neuroscience.

The conference had an efficacious echo of talks over the theme "Exploration and Innovations Which Contribute Hand Towards Curing and Understanding the Diverse Aspects of Spine and Spinal Disorders"

Spine 2018 Organizing Committee would like to thank Lorena Pena Larrea | Hospital Universitario Central de Asturias | Spain for moderating the event along with the onsite Co-Ordinator.

The day 1 of the event was accompanied by Exhibition by TSUNAMI MEDICAL SRL, Italy for Spinal surgery instruments.

The conference was glorified by the following special and keynote talks by:

Giancarlo Guizzardi | Tuscany Surgical Center | Italy

Liz Karter | Level Ground Therapy | UK

John Sutcliffe | London Spine Clinic | UK

Giancarlo Guizzardi | Tuscany Surgical Center | Italy

Walid Attia | The National Neuroscience Institute | Saudi Arabia

Vijay Goel | University of Toledo | USA

Xiu Liu | University of Mississippi Medical Center | USA

Anthony Hammond | KIMS Hospital | UK

Pierpaolo Mura | Sapienza University of Rome | Italy

The attendees have a great time at Spine 2018 Dubai enjoying great talks, exhibition and dispersed for High Tea and lunch break in between. The event successfully ended up with closing ceremony with distribution of certificates and momentos with the motto that "future will be brighter than past for victims of Spinal Disorders by focusing on the journey ahead of research science and global networking for the same.

The uncontrolled fashion could spread the cancer to different parts of the body, impacting the normal functionality of organs throughout the body. Some prevalent cancer diseases include lung & bronchus, colon & rectum, prostate, pancreas, breast, ovary, etc. In this research, a brief review and compilation of key information pertaining to pancreatic cancer is discussed along with historical data. Conclusion & Significance: Due to the severity of pancreatic cancer, it is important that individuals be aware of the symptoms and signs of pancreatic cancer. With awareness, individual may be able to be proactive about the disease in its earlier stages so that the probability for successful long-term treatment may increase.

Spine 2018 thanks Organizing Committee Members including the chair and Co-Chairs for Spine 2018 and Addiction 2018- Walter Bini, Chan Hong Park, Walid Attia, Muhammad Qazafi Memon, Giancarlo Guizzardi, John Sutcliffe, Anthony Hammond, Ali Fahir Ozer, Liz Karter, Xiu Liu, Pankaj Nishikant Surange, Malini Narayanan and Pierpaolo Mura who have so generously helped us make this event happen also to the support of Journal of Neurology and Neurorehabilitation Research & Journal of Brain and Neurology After successful execution of Spine 2018, we are happy to proclaim about the upcoming 4th International Conference on Spine and Spinal Disorders, September 3rd-4th, 2019 at London UK.