ABSTRACT:

In the olden days, healthcare workers were routinely checking the vital signs of the hospitalized patients using instruments that were operated manually, but today such instruments were considered to be outdated, because of the advancement in science and technology.

Hence, with the contributions of Biomedical Engineers, healthcare workers were able to replace the outdated instruments with modern instruments.

For Example, Mercury Thermometer Was Currently Replaced By Digital Thermometer For Simplicity, Flexibility, Efficiency And Accuracy.

Inversely, in the history of human illnesses, there is nothing like outdated diseases or the number of such diseases is insignificant: malaria still exist, typhoid still exist, hypertension still exist, diabetes still exist, cancer still exist, and they keep on increasing day by day.

Also, the occurrences of new diseases when the oldest diseases are defeated bring about uncertainties in our healthcare system.

It Simply Means, The Correct System To Be Used In Disease Study, Disease Treatment And Drug Discovery Has Not Been Fully Understood Or It Has Not Been Discovered Yet!!!

The application of the Numerical Cascade Of Nigella Sativa to produce the natural cure for Covid 19 is the cornerstone for understanding the Correct System to be used in Disease Study, Disease Treatment & Drug Discovery.
