

6th World Congress on Biotechnology - Award content

Giulio Tarro

Professor at the Foundation T. & L. de Beaumont Bonelli for cancer research in Italy E-mail: gitarro@tin.it

The experts who have made outstanding contributions towards the field of Microbiology, virology and Infectious diseases are honoured with prestigious awards. Each award will be given only when the eligibility criteria are achieved. We heartfully hope that the awards received will eventually encourage them to improve their dedication towards research and development. Perceiving remarkable commitments made by the researchers and students, we are honouring them with these awards listed below.

International conference offers budding scholar awards to exceptional graduates, outstanding researchers or early academicians who have distinctive involvement towards the conference theme. The Award strives in providing a strong professional development and improvement opportunity for early career academicians, interacting with professionals from other parts of the world, meeting experts in the field and creating networks and long-term relations.

Best Key-Note Speaker Award

We are proud to honour the Key-Note Speaker whose research and presentation is recognized as best. A special Memento is given to the Best Key-Note Speaker at the conference.

Best Organising Committee Member Award

We are delighted to honour the Organizing Committee Member whose dedication and support is recognized as the most eminent. A special Memento is given to the Best Organising Committee Member at the conference.

Best Poster Award

We are happy to honour a Poster presenter whose research is recognized as unique and contains the novelty in the work presented. A special Memento is given to the Best Poster Award at the conference.

Outstanding Speaker Award (oral presentation)

We are proud to honour an Oral presenter whose presentation and speech reaches the high expectations of the Committee members. A special Memento is given to the Outstanding Speaker Award at the conference.

Young Scientist Award

We are proud to honour a Young Scientist Award to the youthful researchers (PhD students) who performs best at the conference. Not more than 35 years of age, is eligible for this Award.