Editorial Note

Journal of Oral Hygiene and Health has successfully published its 8th volume and released 3 issues during 2020 with no delay. I am pleased to mention that we are going to release new issue (volume 8, issue 4) by the end of 2020. Our journal is having 84.15 as Index-Copernicus value and 0.72* as its impact factor. Additionally, our journal has both NLM as well as International standard serial number (ISSN) respectively, where NLM ID is 101647653 and ISSN is 2332-0702. Journal of oral hygiene and health (JOHH) consist several editorial members from various geographical areas. More than 50 well recognized professionals were acting as editorial board committee throughout the globe.

More than 160 articles in the mode of review, research articles, short communications, case reports, mini reviews, etc. were submitted. Acceptance or rejection of article will be informed to author in the span of 21 to 30 days of early submission while the result of preliminary quality check will be approved in 24 to 48 hours of the submission. JOHH has offered whatsapp contact number and mentioned it in journal home page for easy understanding of author's queries to the editorial board members or editorial assistance.

Review tracking as well as editorial tracking system has been introduced to track the submitted manuscript by the authors, publishers, and editors respectively. Authors and editor can easily track the status of their submitted manuscripts by using journal credentials provided to the author during the submission time. JOHH has tried hard to obtain quality articles relevant to dental topics which include plaque, gum infections, gum bleeding, dental fillings, Endodontic and many more.

Up to the middle of 2020, JOHH has chosen to utilize social media platform like twitter as well as linked in to have easy and friendly communication with authors, reviewers, and editors, public as well as well recognized professionals. Journal has got more positive responses and followers in social media as the latest updates and related oral care issues are posted on the daily basis. This process is still continuing and getting wider responses from throughout the globe. Also, we cordially thank our readers for their ultimate support. Our journal is having more than 1500 readers throughout the globe and this will be probable with open access journals. Major countries such as Japan, United Kingdom, United States, India, Egypt, Pakistan and many more are visiting our JOHH domain to know more about current research works in this particular area. Visitor's traffic is the main target for the achievement of any journal so, JOHH offers report of Google analytics and was attracting viewers constantly all over the globe.

For the upcoming volume 8 and issue of JOHH, we are going to provide the same feature just like previous 3 issues of 8th volume during the year 2020. By the huge support from the authors and hard work from the reviewers, we will be releasing minimum 3 issues year. We will try to coin a special issue within the scope of journal by taking the necessary help from Editorial team. Once again I am expressing my sincere gratitude and thanks to all the authors, reviewers, editorial board committee members for their complete hard work behind the success of previous volumes and the current ongoing issue. I would like to thank the office bearers for their hardcore support to carry out another new issue in the volume 8 i.e., Volume 8 issue 4 within the scheduled time. We promise our readers that we will do our best and release more volumes and issues with in the interest and knowledgeable areas by the year 2021 respectively.
