I appreciate and recommend the open access movements and the Journal of Telecommunications System & Management for encouragement and giving inspiration for people who insist on self education. I have therefore learnt in the cause of life and destiny that you are not educated is not an excuse not to become a limit breaker; for the best educated man is a self educated man; for the self educated man has no time limit. Most importantly, special thanks go to the editorial board members and journal staffs have worked very hard for the journal to establish its high professional standing and I there by recommending this journal to be indexed in indexing platforms.
